TUITION ASSISTANCE

- Assistance is available to families with students in kindergarten through 8th grade who are active, contributing members of a Catholic Parish.
- Tuition assistance applications are processed through FACTS Tuition Management Company. Completed forms, a $20 processing fee and all documentation must be submitted to FACTS by March 1, 2009 in order to be considered for tuition assistance by Star of the Sea School and/or the Diocese of Richmond award for the 2009-2010 academic year.
- Applications may be submitted online at www.factstuitionaid.com.
- Tuition assistance decisions will be made after review by the Principal and Finance Committee of the School Board prior to the start of the school year.
- To be eligible for tuition assistance consideration, your child must have completed the application and must be accepted to Star of the Sea School. The application fee is non-refundable whether or not the financial aid request is granted.
- Students receiving financial assistance are expected to achieve academically according to their abilities and make a positive contribution to the school.
- All information received is strictly confidential.
